

COVID-19 POLICY

1. Individuals inside The Potomac Playmakers' Performing Arts Center must wear a facemask or face shield inside the building at all times EXCEPT when on-stage as part of a live performance. The determination whether to wear facial covering during live performances will be on a show-to-show in consultation with that show's production staff, and in consideration of artistic requirements of the show.
2. Before entering the building, all individuals must submit to a temperature scan. If the individual's temperature meets or exceeds 100 degrees Fahrenheit, the individual will be barred from entering the building until a) submitting to quarantine for a period of not less than fourteen (14) days, or submitting written proof of a negative COVID-19 test.
3. Before entering the building, all individuals will be asked if they have recently experienced symptoms of COVID-19 or have been recently come into contact with anyone that the individual knows to have contracted COVID-19. If the individual answers yes to either or both question(s), the individual will be barred from entering the building until a) submitting to quarantine for a period of not less than two (2) weeks), or submitting written proof of a negative COVID-19 test.
